THE STORY	6
THE PEOPLE	46

High school . . . is the whirl of fall leaves, swirling across a road at twilight. It's a silver-plated megaphone dangling from a dainty chain. It's meeting friends, watching the winning basket and experiencing the thrill and sweat of a locker room after the struggle.

High school . . . is cramming for an exam that you'd rather forget. It's a shiny gold ring in your Junior year and a charm bracelet with scattered memories.

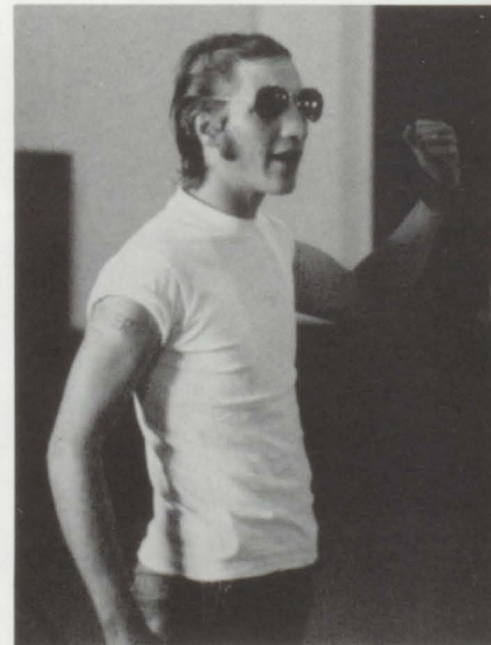

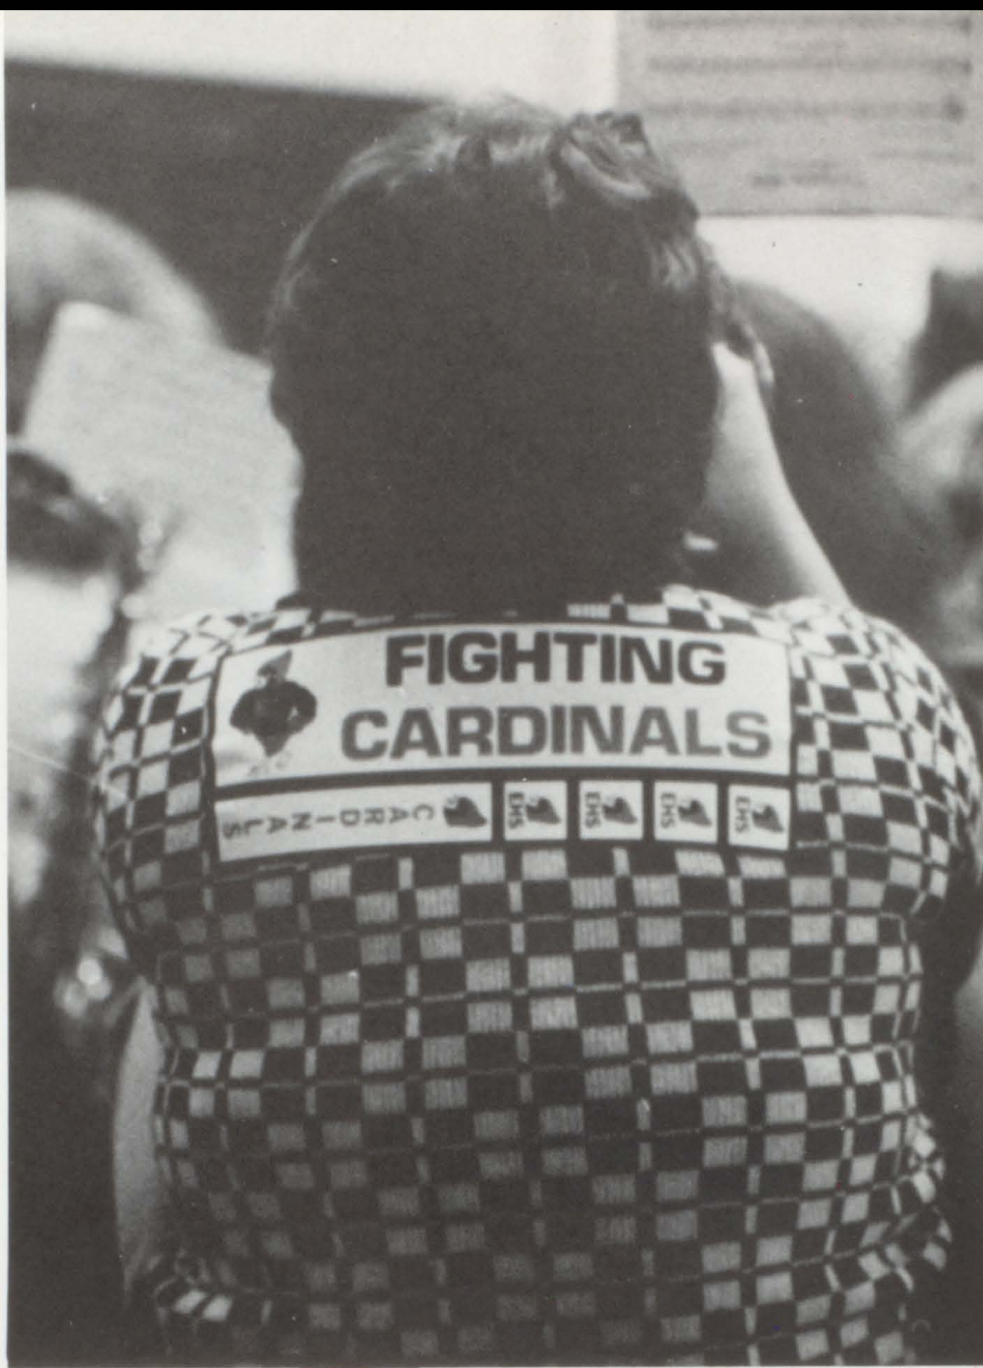

High school . . . is growing up, and growing up is wishing you were young again.

SCHOOL PUBLICATIONS

Many hours of hard work were spent working on this year's Redbird. We would like to thank Mrs. Coleman, Miss Schulz, Mr. Shilman, and Mr. Bruce for their assistance. The staff felt a change in the type of book was necessary. We sincerely hope you enjoy the 1976 Redbird.

The Cardinal staff, under the guidance of Miss Schulz, produced a monthly paper. This kept the students informed on the current events in EHS. It contained poems, sports, club activities, and Senior interviews.

1. Redbird Editor, Jim Kaiser, hard at work.
2. Photographer, Linda Gayman, checks for her assignments.

SENIORS CREATE A MEMORABLE YEAR

The fall of '75 brought 44 students to E.H.S. for their final year. The days were filled with football and girls' basketball games, pep rallies, Homecoming and ACT tests. Then came snow and cold but there were many activities to keep everyone busy, basketball games, wrestling matches, sock hops, Sno-Ball, class meetings and intramural. Spring arrived bringing track and golf meets, music contest, Prom and banquet, awards night, skip day, Baccalaureate and the long awaited graduation. It was the end of our yesterdays and the beginning of our many tomorrows.

REFLECTIONS

The halls of EHS will miss the class of '76.

*No longer will our feet
climb the never ending stairs.*

No longer will we drink from the water fountain that had a mind of its own.

No longer will our eyes seek the familiar rooms we have occupied for the past six years.

No longer will we feel the safety of a familiar place.

For now we are on to bigger and better things.

We will detach ourselves from the refuge we have clung to since junior high,

And we will enter a world completely unknown to us.

Whether we are going on to higher education, or competing with the world in its madness,

We know we must strive to go on and become part of this coming generation.

Susanne Illies
